The Free public schools of America were founded and have been maintained for the purpose of giving expression to that concept of equality of opportunity which we have idealized in this Nation.

Equality of opportunity presupposes that there will be an ensuing appreciation of social responsibility on the part of those who are the recipients of opportunity. Today, more than ever before, America requires that its Citizens who have had schooling become tolerant, alert, and social-minded members of society.

PHOENIX

TO STUDENTS OF JANESVILLE SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL

You have dedicated the 1933 yearbook to your parents. We of the faculty are pleased to know that you have given thought to those whose sacrifices have made your present school life possible. Did you ever stop to think that the aim of all fathers and mothers is to give to their sons and daughters better opportunities than were provided for them twenty or more years ago? You owe to your parents more than you can ever repay. All they ask is that you fully prepare yourselves to live in your community and reflect credit on the home from which you come.

Dear Ruth -
I really ought to say Ruthie! - Well after seeing and hearing you,
I feel I know you very well indeed - If you begin at the rate you started you'll be leaving yourself behind!
& hope you'll have occasion to see the big moment about it - we really ought to be me know about it - we really ought to be things together at the same time so - A.A. you swimming at the foot of the sandpit lots - you really ought to come too. I wonder if you'll forget me if I go away - I don't think I'll be forget me so come around and see me all the time I'll be thinking of you all the time I'll be thinking of you P.S. I wonder how you got that stiff neck!

HISTORY OF CLASS

In 11A the following people were elected to NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY: Allan Antisdel, Maxine Fisher, Lucile Grenawalt, Severa Krug and Ruth Larsen. Severa Krug was elected President of the Society in 12A. In 12A the class sponsored the HOMECOMING DANCE. The gym was decorated in a fall scene with orange and brown lowered ceiling. We had Howard Metsger's orchestra. The game was with Madison East High and the dance was held November 13. In 12A Janis Buchholz, Betty Gsell, Ruth Heise, Lyle Hope, Ethleen Kelly, Verna Paul, Dorothy Porter, Ruth Quaerna, and Bernice Zemke were elected to NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY, and James Baker was elected to QUILL AND SCROLL.

Allan Antisdel was Secretary-Treasurer of the STUDENT CABINET in 12B, and Vice-President in 12A.

On January 18, 1933, the CLASS PLAY, "The Romantic Age" by A. A. Milne, and directed by Miss Agnes Krog was presented. The cast was as follows: Melisande, Ruth Larsen; Mrs. Knowle, Severa Krug; Mr. Knowle, Joseph King; Jane Bagot, Janis Buchholz; Robert Coote, Allan Antisdel; Gervase Mallory, James Baker; Alice, Ethleen Kelly; Ern, Victor Brummond; Master Susan, Charles Wobig. The money raised from the Homecoming Dance and The Class Play was put into a school fund to help pay school expenses for needy students.

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES were held Wednesday Evening, January 25, 1933. The speaker was Dean Ralph Dennis, Professor of Speech at Northwestern University.

The following boys were in ATHLETICS some time during Senior High School: FOOTBALL: Jerome Augustine, Stanley Garvin, Eugene Richards, William Shuler, Charles Wobig, Walter Creek, Eugene Fanning, Marxem Brace. BASKETBALL: Jerome Augustine, Walter Creek, Victor Brummond, manager, Lyle Hope, Manager. TRACK: James Baker, Allan Antisdel, Walter Creek, Stuart Porter, Lyle Hope, Manager. SWIMMING: Robert Vigdahl, James Baker.

The Janesville chapter of the National Honor Society, composed of students outstanding in character, leadership, scholarship, and service, and chosen by a committee of the faculty, proposes to create high ideals in the student body. Each year the society earns money and awards a fifty dollar scholarship to some deserving member who is planning to enter a college or university to continue his education.

Luncheon meetings are held every other Thursday in the Model Dining Room at which educational and entertaining lectures are given by outstanding members of the community.

The Unalihi Girl Reserve Club is made up of tenth grade girls, meeting weekly at the Y. W. C. A. The purpose of the organization is to stimulate a spirit of fellowship among girls and to develop the personality of each girl in the realm of the mental, the physical, and the spiritual. This purpose is symbolized by a triangle, each side of which represents one phase of personality, inclosed by a circle of fellowship.

The elected officers, together with appointed chairmen of service, Membership, and Social Committees, form the council of the organization, or the executive group. During the year 1932-33 the club stressed the idea of service—to the community, to the school, and to the home. Several projects accomplished this, such as the providing of food, clothing, and toys for children of needy families. Another major project of the club was the symbolic pageant presented with the other Girl Reserve groups on Palm Sunday.

Membership in the organization is not limited, but all girls may join who wish "to find and give the best" in life.

Rehearsals: Monday at 4:00 P.M. Beginning March 13, the rehearsals were held with the Girls Glee Club on Monday and Wednesday, at 7:45 A.M.

Purpose: To serve as a foundation organization to the Girls' Glee Club. This year, the turn-out for the Girls' Glee Club was so large that a separate organization—The Treble Clef,—was formed.

Accomplishments: Christmas program, in assembly. Appeared before Assembly in a Spring program, in May.

The purpose of the Mel-Thalian Dramatic Club is to promote an interest in dramatics in the school and to develop the abilities of its members.

The meetings are held on the first and third Tuesdays of the month in Room 1. This year the club has produced several plays that were presented in Assembly. Among them were, "Young America," "The Proposal," "The Rehearsal," and "The Exchange."

The Dramatic and International Clubs held a joint party in the Girls' Gym on January 14. This was a great success.

The Forum was organized this year to promote interests in forensics. Debate and forensic teams are sponsored by the club although any student in Senior High is eligible.

The Club meets every Thursday in Room 100 with alternating Thursday evening meetings at the public library.

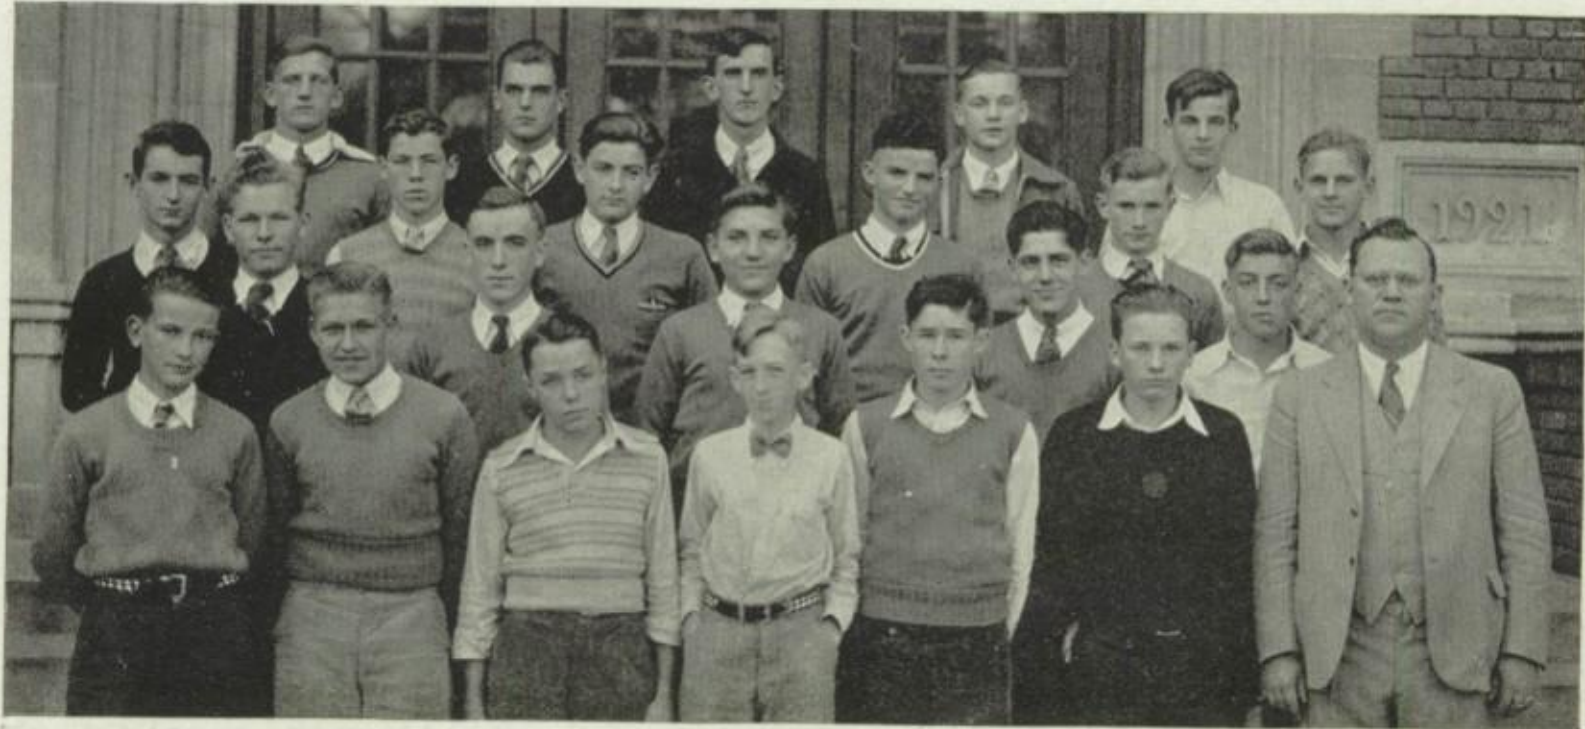

Business meetings alone are conducted at 4 P.M. Programs are always given in the evening. In this way the club is able to extend privileges to all students—particularly to those who work after school or are engaged in athletic training.

This season, the debate teams have met in ten non-decision debates and were invited to participate in the debate tournament at Wheaton College. The Forum's next activity will be the sponsoring of the Oratory and Reading contests to be held in the spring.

Rockford High School and Madison Wis. High School will meet with us for these events.

SUMMARY

The Blue-J, weekly school newspaper, is published every Thursday during the school year by a group of forty-five students. Its purpose is to give the faculty, Board of Education, and persons outside of the school a summary of life in Janesville High School, and is of particular value to the student, giving him information on changes in school curriculum, administration, and activities.

Students working on the staff are under the supervision of the Managing Editor, Helen Meyers, and the two advisers, Miss Arlene McKellar, and Mr. O. C. Keesey. No credit is given for Blue-J work unless the student has taken journalistic writing for one semester; however, members of the staff meet every Tuesday noon at twelve-forty in room two, the home room of the publication.

During the first semester the Blue-J published an eight-page paper for visiting night for parents. The Blue-J is a four-page paper and is financed by both the Student Activities Fund and the advertising.

SUMMARY

The Phoenix staff attempts each year to present a new and interesting memory-picture book to the students of Janesville High School.

Every student in school may aid the staff by sending in suggestions to better the book or by sending in their favorite snap-shots and original jokes.

To become a member of the Phoenix staff, one must have at least a "C" average. The position that he acquires will be determined by his natural ability and willingness to work.

The Phoenix is, and has always been, the students book—about students, for students, and by students.

SUMMARY

The Chemistry Club was organized by students who had taken a year of general chemistry in order that they might continue the study farther. Membership is open to students having had one semester of the work. Meetings were held every other week, before school, but members worked in groups or individually in the laboratory when they were able.

Work was done in qualitative analysis, while another group studied the chemistry of photography, with the actual procedure and processes carried on in the dark room. Recent developments in science were discussed at meetings, with a study of various industrial processes based on chemistry.

SUMMARY

Quill and Scroll is an international honorary society for high school journalists. Its purpose is to encourage students and promote their interests in journalism.

The local chapter of Quill and Scroll was organized here two years ago when the first group of candidates, ten in number, were accepted.

To be elected to Quill and Scroll each student must be recommended to the national secretary-treasurer on these bases:

1. Candidates must be a junior, senior, or post graduate.
2. They must be in the upper third of their class in general scholastic standing for the current year.
3. They must be recommended by the supervisor or by the committee governing publications. Samples of the candidate's best work are submitted by the supervisor.

4. They must have done superior work in writing, editing, or business management.

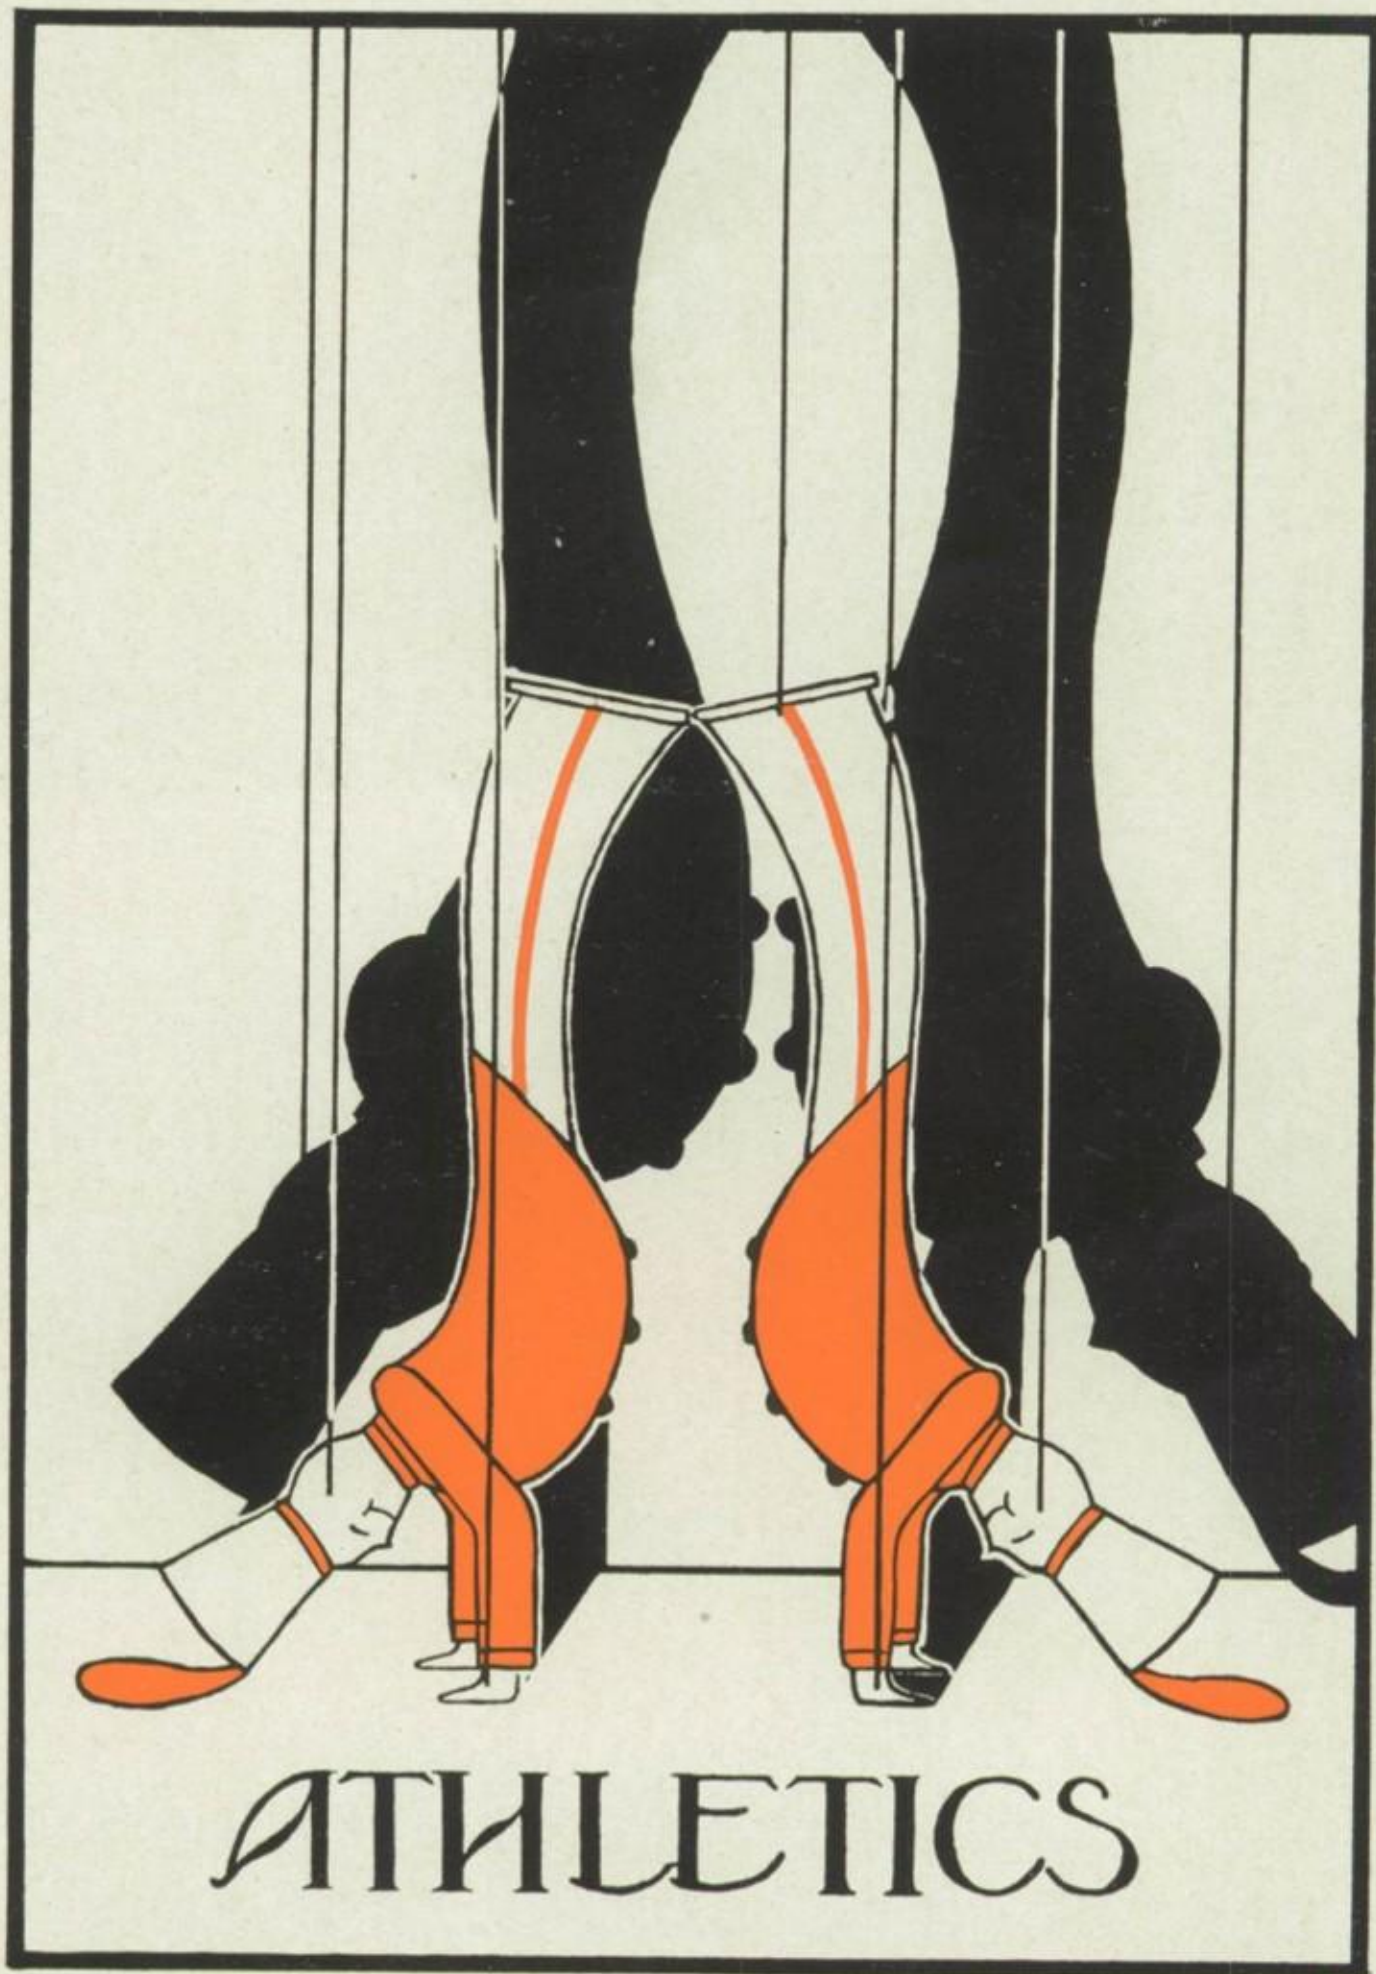

5. They must be approved by the national Quill and Scroll secretary-treasurer.

Every two months "Quill and Scroll," a magazine, is sent to members; it contains many interesting ideas of how to write and how to improve the school annual and paper.

Quill and Scroll did not sponsor its yearly banquet this year due to economic conditions.

BOYS' ATHLETICS

The year 1932-33 saw many problems develop in athletics which were perplexing and many of which are still unsolved. However, every interscholastic athletic team was sustained although cross country, swimming, golf, tennis, and to some extent track, were placed 'on their own' and the coaches and team members had to provide their own transportation and equipment. It was gratifying to see that personnel numbers on these teams did not suffer, but rather increased regardless of the above-mentioned condition.

Intra-mural athletics were greatly expanded in number of participants as well as activities. A new system of scoring was adopted. This system of scoring placed a high premium on number of participants as well as winning contests. It was an excellent step forward. It is hoped that some means of placing a premium on good sportsmanship can be worked out in the near future. Water sports, volley ball, ice frolic and variations of established games were some of the later additions.

Progress went steadily forward in the physical education classes trying to tie up the teaching of after-school games with the intra-mural chance of participation. Swimming instruction went forward and the objective of having every boy a passable swimmer came into closer realization.

The 1932 squad put in the most successful season a Janesville football team has had since the year 1926. The season started glamorously with a 16-9 conference victory over Racine Horlick which was followed by a 43-0 victory over Edgerton. Madison West, one of the favorites for the conference title, was taken 14-13. Kenosha was played at Kenosha in a bruising game which spelled defeat for Janesville in several ways. The team was badly crippled and never fully recovered. Madison Central and East won very close games from a badly 'shot' Janesville team and Racine Park won easily. Then came the final game of the year at Beloit. A crippled, but madly fighting, Janesville team completely outplayed the purple and were stopped only five inches from a touchdown which would have written victory for the first time since 1912. The score was 0-0. It was the second tie in all those 2-victory-starved years. The B team, composed in the main of 9th and 10th graders, won most of its games.

The basketball season got off to a good start when Janesville defeated Madison East at Madison 13 to 12. The future looked bright at least for the first semester when Janesville's two guards Woodring and Terrill would still be with us. The next week Madison West proved too much, and on the preceeding night Evansville set the team back with another defeat although it was any one's game all the way through. The team got back on their feet again and defeated Racine Park in an exciting game. Janesville was all set for Beloit and it was a battle from start to finish; the score at the half being tied 13 apiece. It was only in the last few minutes that Beloit pulled through to win. Kenosha's huskies proved much too powerful for Janesville's Blues and gave them a sound trimming. New Glarus proved no match for Janesville, but with this game the squad lost its two regular guards Woodring and Terrill. An unexpected defeat by the hands of Racine Park caused a general shake up of the personnel of the squad. Janesville beat Madison East in the next game. Again Madison West was strong, but the following week revenge on Evansville was gained in a very well played game. The last two games were disastrous, Kenosha and Beloit the two leading teams in the Big Eight, trouncing Janesville with large scores.

Janesville was chosen to compete in the Whitewater District tournament, winning our first game from Fort Atkinson 16-14. We were eliminated in the second game by the District Champions, Beloit.

The cross country team defeated Rockford twice, won a triangular meet from East Aurora and Rockford, placed fourth in the midwest invitational, placed sixth in the state, and did very well.

The swimming team won two meets from Wisconsin High, won two meets from Harvard, was beaten twice by the National Champion Rockford team, and swam well at the state meet although failing to place.

 ADVISERS Miss Janette Meredith—Head of the Department, Miss Kathryn Mulligan

The Girls' Athletic Association is an organization whose aim is to promote such a program of athletic activities for girls as shall meet their needs; promote competition that stresses enjoyment of sport, development of good sportsmanship, leadership, and character, and, foremost, to contribute to the Seven Cardinal Principles of Education, and to promote ideals of health.

Membership is open to any senior high school girl. She must participate in sports each season to be on the roll call. Business meetings are held whenever necessary. The organization motto being "Sports for all, All for Sports." A meeting is set for the first Tuesday of each month at which time a recreational meeting is held, alternating with gymnasium and swimming pool.

The Girls' Athletic Association offers many sports throughout the year. Horse-shoe and Field Hockey are the new sports introduced this year. The following is the season program:

FALL

Archery
 Field Hockey
 Horseshoe
 Sr. R. C. L. Saving

WINTER

Tumbling
 Tap Dancing
 Basketball
 Volleyball
 Jr. R. C. L. Saving

SPRING

Track and Field
 Archery
 Baseball
 Tennis
 Fancy Diving and Strokes
 Canoeing

All sports closed with a color team tournament or a meet at which time keen competition was registered. An All-Star team of students was picked in hockey and basketball, this team being composed of the best players out for the sport. This team played the faculty team. A girl must know the theory and practical side of the game, passing a written exam with a grade of 87 or above.

During the past year many RED LETTER days have been on the G. A. A. Calendar. We hope to have some of these tradition days: Initiation, Nickel Hops, Roller Skating Party, Assembly program--Tumbling and Tap Dancing, Boy and Girl Social Dancing Party, Play Day—10 high schools as guests, Tennis Day at Riverside, Theatre Party, Hikes, Ice Skating party, G. A. A. Wind up.

The official royal blue Chenille "J" represents the highest honor any girl can receive in G. A. A. The "J" represents 1000 points, 200 being in water sports. A girl receiving her "J" is an all-around athlete, having participated in four land sports and swimming. A girl may earn a bar which represents 500 additional points. The points are systematized in such a manner that a girl is a senior before receiving a "J." The presentation of Life Saving emblems and Letter awards are made before student assembly.

1932-33 "J" WINNERS

Marcella Lyke	Helen Meyers
Verna Helgeson	Barbara Ridley
Ethel Creek	Norma Wilson
Dorothy Johnston	Stella Ryder
Bernice Robinson

Much credit to the success of G. A. A. is due to the cabinet, which is composed of girls who are heads of the various sports:

1932-33 CABINET

Field Hockey	Bernice Robinson
Horseshoe	Kathryn Palmer
Fall Archery	Esther Anderson
Basketball	Stella Ryder
Tumbling	Barbara Ridley
Tap-Dancing	Margaret Riese
Volleyball	Patricia Cronin

Dear Ruth,
We've always been friends - but it seems like lately we've been better ones. I'm certainly glad I went back for a P.G. Did it and I certainly used that times? You for more than purpose. Don't you typing class a second "D.D."? Seeing you so good think I'm a second like that. If a certain thing should be someone like that. You shouldn't have as solving my own problems. If a certain thing happens before I did. You never should have an "I.C." anymore. You really should have had one. We have both our troubles - haven't we? I don't think they are worth worrying about in the end. Gee! I was so glad you had the lead in the class Play. You put a few people you? You've been wonderful in it. I mean don't I could have had that other part. I'm glad Janis got it though. I agree with all those things Miss (Kroy said) and this summer - in here (not the girls?) about you. Will have to do some things turn out right for both things. I never mentioned some of those confidential things
I never will!
loads of love and much love

Jack, a senior, and Jean, a junior, have been chosen to represent the students of Janesville Senior High School. Interesting little bits have been taken from their conversations.

"Have you noticed that in spite of the depression school enrollment is above par, the students in the senior high numbering 1,005?" exclaimed Jean, excited.

"Yes," replied Jack, "and will you ever forget the 'internal combustion' in assembly caused by the confusion in finding seats? Then Mr. Klontz explained the S. A. A., which has been in existence four years."

As the two rambled on, they turned to these topics.

Europe backward and forward! In classes, out of classes, and between classes!

Our young master violinist, Anthony Dongarra, who has won a complete scholarship with Stella Roberts, appeared before the assembly.

Miss Creighton is not superstitious. The first bank day was on the thirteenth.

Things are going fine. Faculty picnic and we were out at 3:00 P. M.

Election of class officers.

First pep session! Bud Colip proved his acrobatic skill.

When they got to this point, Jean praised Jack's fine blocking in the Racine Horlick game. "Coach Pat Dawson knows his football. Good blocking and the score was 16-7. Hurrah for our side!"

"Victory upon victory! Our B team shows great possibilities for the future. The Orfordville Regulars lost 20-0 there, and 19-0 here."

Jean suddenly remembered her lengthy class. "We got jipped today with no assembly. An hour of American History is bad enough, but an hour and a half of the American Observer is atrocious! The first edition of the Blue J was a great improvement over the Observer."

"Speaking of assemblies, why were the girls kept after school Monday?" questioned Jack.

"The Fidelis officers were introduced and the constitution was explained."

Three days later Jack reminded Jean of the game with Edgerton.

"Don't you like Herman Helbig?"

"He's keen and the band is great! I know it'll help us send Edgerton home with their tails behind them."

Sure enough! The Blues won, 43-0.

Madison West got the shock of their lives. They lost to us, 14-13.

Tuesday Jean came to the conclusion that she didn't appreciate her teachers until they weren't at school. Miss Plumb had an operation at Rochester, Minnesota. Miss Virginia Snyder acted as substitute.

Jack got a big kick out of the way the boys looked in hair ribbons and the girls in ties. Black masks added to their ridiculous appearance. Merely the Dramatic Club initiation!

Friday of the same week Maurice Hull and David Sherman showed their skill in cheering by leading the Dramatic Club take-off on the Kenosha game.

Saturday Jean was rooting for Jack at the big game there. In spite of the efforts of three band members, our new school song didn't bring us victory. We were beaten 39-0.

PHOENIX

"Weren't we lucky to have two special assemblies this week as well as Grant Richards and the celebration of James Whitcomb Riley's birthday!" exclaimed Jack.

"Yes, and I know twice as much about fire prevention and Lief Ericson, thanks to Mr. Nicholson and Mr. Simonson, respectively."

"And will you ever forget the snow on October 10th!" said Jack. "This has been a full week with the six page Blue J, the Yale Chronicles for the American history classes, and the Phoenix pictures."

As Jean went into her advisory group, she called over her shoulder, "Do your best for the alumni tomorrow!"

Jack and the team did their best. Nevertheless, we lost to Madison Central, 13-0. In a special event between halves, Cleo Keel won the cross country race, and Allan Antisdell and Don Slawson were close behind. The 12A class and Howard Metzger's orchestra made the Homecoming Dance a huge success.

Jean enthusiastically told Jack Tuesday morning about David and Moses Ermend, from Persia, who spoke and sang for the International Club.

(Incidentally, it was too warm for coats.)

Blow upon blow! Report cards came out first hour, October 20th. The 11A's were especially anxious since their marks made a difference toward becoming members of the National Honor Society.

Monday was bluer than ever because of the continual rain. Miss Keating saved the day by conducting community singing. Allan Antisdell and James Baker gave their orations which were chosen by Miss Krog as the best in the class.

As Mr. Gessert said, Mr. Robinson promised Coach Dawson a star football player for the Madison East game. However, there is just another field hockey player, Barbara Lynn. Our fellows still not discouraged put up one grand fight, but they were defeated 13-8.

Friday was an eventful day for the history department. Miss Howe broke her nose; Miss Cadman fell on the auditorium stage. Mr. Jurlen Hoekstra, a baritone, and his accompanist, Mr. Elwood Kraft, saved everyone's disposition by an hour's program.

The next time the two young people were together, Jean told about her history class' trip to Madison. They also spoke about how fine it was that Franklin Austin, 12B, had won the state corn judging contest at Madison.

Jean was anxious to have a Chinese correspondent after having heard Mr. Chu, from the University of Wisconsin, speak about the youth of China. It was most interesting since Mr. Jensen had talked on the German youth in assembly.

Jack and Jean agreed that they would like to go to Cincinnati, Ohio, with Helen Meyers, 12B, and Miss McKellar, to the National Scholastic Press Association.

All was quiet on Hallowe'en!

"What did you think about the Swiss yodlers in assembly?" asked Jack, laughing.

"They certainly were a change from anything we've ever had. Didn't you like the zither player though?"

Teachers' Convention November 3rd, 4th, and 5th. Also, President Hoover, introduced by Ex-Governor Kohler, introduced by Senator Blanchard, stopped at the Five Points for five minutes. On the same day Racine Park's seventy piece band brought them victory 19-0.

One of Jean's ambitions was realized on the Wednesday of National Health Week and National Education. She was one of the twenty-three formally initiated into the National Honor Society during a special assembly program. The speakers were: President, Severa Krug; Secretary, Frances Yahn; Treasurer, Joanne Litts; and members Allan Antisdell and William Stevens.

The same day Miss Nellie Jones introduced the student body to Fanny Fat, Minnie Mineral, Viola Vitamin, Patty Protein, and Sally Sugar.

In the ten page Blue J, especially for the visiting parents, the results of the straw vote of the senior high school were given: Hoover, 500; Roosevelt 300; and Thomas, 32.

PHOENIX

November 11th brought about the largest pep session that J. H. S. has ever had, a special assembly to commemorate Armistice Day, and a nickel hop.

Since we tied Beloit 0-0, Jack and Jean and a group of young people were more more than hilarious at the Beloit Homecoming.

The next social event was the Hi-Y party, where we find Jack and Jean.

"I thought that play 'Young America' was keen, didn't you?" questioned Jack.

"Izzy certainly makes an unusual type of judge!" added Jean. "By the way, who was the champion eater at the football banquet the other night?"

"Everyone did his share. Wasn't it keen that Janesville could have the largest cross country meet ever held in the Middle West? Say, isn't this our dance, Jean?"

Grant Richards and James Baker changed the old saying "If you can't sing, whistle" to "If you can't whistle, laugh".

The G. A. A. sponsored a Turkey Hop, the school donated 133 Thanksgiving baskets, and the Marion Leavitt Girl Reserves took advantage of Leap Year by giving a party. The main events of the four days' vacation were the Boys' Conference at Milwaukee, and the Press Convention in Madison.

The ideas of the International Club seem to be spreading rapidly. The Ramos Mexican Orchestra, composed of the father, seventy-three years of age, who played the piano, his son, who played the violin, and his three daughters, who played stringed instruments and sang, gave the student body a special program. The Dramatic Club presented a Russian entertainment the same week.

HELBIG'S GERMANS

Jack and Jean were more than excited over our victory with Madison East 13-12. On their return trip Jean said, "Did you know that the last Honor Roll was the largest in the history of J. H. S.?"

Jack exclaimed, "Are we ever getting razzed because there were but 46 boys compared to the 104 girls! Let's change the subject."

"O. K. The King Quartet was keen. I had never heard Swiss bell ringers before.

It is very evident that the viewpoint of Miss Howe and that of Mr. Stephen Bolles are different on matters of history. Miss Howe thinks that there is more to it than newspapers.

Former Vice-Principal Brown, accompanied by his wife, gave the assembly some familiar songs.

It's sad to remember that we were defeated in four consecutive games: Madison West, 23-15; Evansville, 19-14; Racine Park, 19-16; and our greatest foe, Beloit, 25-15. Friday the thirteenth just is lucky for some people!

Previous to Christmas were the all girls' party, sponsored by the Fidelis Club, the Blue J party, and the nickel hop sponsored by the J Club.

The musical assemblies were due to Mr. Helbig's German band, and Miss Keating's carrolers.

A Christmas pageant was given to end the school year.

Janesville students were back in the old routine January 9th. There was no assembly program. What a start for the new year!

Miss Plumb and Miss Sutton were back after several weeks' illnesses. Miss Menzies' place was filled by Mr. Hemingway.

Ruth Larson and James Baker were chosen as the leads for the February class play, "The Romantic Age", a comedy in three acts by A. A. Milne, an English playwright. It was through the efforts of the director, Miss Agnes Krog, that the tickets were sold at reduced prices.

Eighty graduates, clad in gowns, appeared in assembly as part of the student body for the last time January 23rd. Chairman Severa Krug introduced James Baker, who gave a challenge to underclassmen, and Charles Wobig, who told of his high school experiences. Dean Ralph Dennis, of Northwestern University, was the speaker at the commencement exercises. Following the exercises, the graduation dance was held in the Monterey Hotel ballroom.

"Aren't you glad those awful exams are over?" Jean and Jack together left school at noon for their day and a half vacation.

"By the way, would you, armed with no other weapons than a good disposition and a friendly smile, risk your life in Africa? James C. Wilson did according to his 'Three Wheeling through Africa'."

"Jean, how does it happen that you didn't get your Senior Life Saving Badge along with Dorothy Johnson, 11A, and Verna Helgeson, 12B?"

"I didn't see you named captain of the 1933 debaters with Grant Richards, 12B, and Art Siker, 12A, either."

Summary of events: Janesville-New Glarus game. We won, 20-0. Racine Park game. We lost, 19-17. Madison East game. Our victory, 19-17. Surprise special assembly, Mr. Raymond Roberts' "Pamakasika's Pets". A. A. U. W. tea and style show for all senior girls at the Woman's Club. Coldest weather since 1904. Movie of Chicago. "The Hen-Pecked Holler Gossip Group" given by Miss Mulligan's 10A advisory group. Marion Leavitt broadcast over WCLO. Election of N. H. S. officers: Frances Yahn, President; George Tiegs, Vice-President; Florence Austin, Secretary; Francis Fuller, Treasurer. Hi-Y social events: dance and tobogganing. Marion Leavitt tobogganing party. Election of Student Cabinet officers: Joyce Hartman, President; Charles Bostwick, Vice-President; George Tiegs, Secretary and Treasurer. Dr. A. M. Nicol talked about oriental customs. Janesville-Evansville game. Our victory, 25-24. Kenosha game. Our loss, 42-18.

The next time Jean and Jack were together they carried on a varied conversation.

"Jean, did you have a good time at the 11A class party?"

"I always have a good time. By the way, how did you like the play in assembly?"

"After the many rehearsals of 'The Rehearsal', it was pretty good."

PHOENIX

"Professor A. J. James, of the University of Wisconsin, ought to give an interesting talk to the F. A. A. second annual father and son banquet, don't you think?"

"You never can tell. Say, those girls in assembly were good. Lots of boys couldn't do those stunts. The requirements for a girl's J surely are stiff. Norma Wilson and Dorothy Johnson, 12B's, and Ethel Creek, 11A, more than toed the mark."

"I lose a study-hall tomorrow, but it ought to be worth it. Joseph C. Elliot is going to talk on 'Where Human Leopards Prowl'."

We hate to do it, but as a matter of record, the score of the Janesville-Beloit game, at Beloit, was 53-10. However, we defeated the Wisconsin High swimming team, and soon after the Harvard team. Many students attended the Whitewater Tournament. Hurrah! Six good assembly programs in succession. "March of Time" given by Miss Howe's 3rd hour 12A history class; vocational speakers from Miss E. Taylor's 12A classes were Bob Brady, Helen Ryan, Bob Hyzer, and Lucile Volbrecht; parts of "The Saga of Eric the Red" by the Glee Clubs; talks on the League of Nations by members of Miss Bilstad's history class; "The Exchange" given by the Dramatic Club; and Miss Helen Taylor's talk on Ireland. School banking was suspended due to the national banking moratorium. Paper scrip was issued to save the day. Depression in general seemed to affect the per centage of Honor Roll students. The girls outnumbered the boys 2 to 1 in the lowest average of the school year. Wisdom does not always mean victory, for the Faculty were defeated by the Varsity 28-24 in an over time period. The Student Cabinet finally came to the rescue. Two nickel hops in three weeks! The Hi-Y Older Boys' Conference was held at the Y. M. C. A. The girls' swimming exhibition was held in the Y pool, April 6th.

"Don't you think that the class play cast is good?"

"I've only heard about the leads, Joyce Hartman and Bob Brady. Who else is in it?"

Jack named the other characters: Charlotte Kressin, Florence Davies, John Hough, Don Richards, Grant Richards, Gerry Silberthorn, Charles Doheny, Orrie Pautch, and Roy Wilcox.

"I'll bet they are relieved not to have to practice during vacation, from April 8th to the 16th."

Miss Keating certainly has had her hands full. The Treble Cleff Club joined the Girls' Glee Club, making a chorus of 76. The original members of the Girls' Glee Club practiced sometimes with the boys, sometimes in the large girls' group, and sometimes alone. They gave a program for the State Parent Teachers' Convention held here, and with the boys, gave selections from the gay nineties and from the present. The boys took part in the teachers' operetta.

Jean and Jack were commenting on "Down to the Sea in Ships", a very interesting talk given by Chester Scott Howe. Suddenly a small boy from the junior high school bumped into Jean and knocked her books to the floor. Jack picked them up.

"Thanks a lot, Jack. You're about a week ahead of the Courtesy Campaign."

Is that what all the presidents' meetings have been about?"

"Yes. We're planning to have Dr. Ganfield, from Carroll College, speak at one regular assembly. There probably will be several special assemblies. During the banking periods discussions on courtesy will be carried on."

"I hope the results of this Courtesy Campaign will be permanent."

A variety of events took place during the next few weeks. Most important were the schedule planning, report cards, N. H. S. elections, the Marion Leavitt Girl Reserve party, the Quill and Scroll pin awards, the Junior Prom, the Memorial Day program, and the distribution of the Phoenixes.

The exceptionally large graduating class ended their high school careers with exams on the 9th and 12th. Their picnic was a great success in spite of the fact that the other two thirds of the student body were still under the jurisdiction of the faculty. After the very successful class day, commencement, and graduation dance, Jean and Jack were ready to play, laugh, and be merry for three full months.

"THE BIG STORE"

The smart young miss of high school age knows her fashions. . . . she knows the difference between a frock that is chic and one that isn't. . . . just as she knows a host of other important things that once were left to the judgment of an adult mind. The high school miss does her own shopping. . . . she realizes that her clothes must be a reflection of her own personality. . . . and so with her modern ideas of style and quality, she comes to Bostwick's.

No amount of high-powered salesmanship can change an ordinary dress to a "gorgeous frock". . . . and it doesn't fool the high school girl for a minute! She knows that a dress bought where quality is the by-word MUST be right. She knows that the smartest girls and women of every age make Bostwick's their shopping headquarters because they're satisfied and pleased with their purchases.

It is not just by chance that every generation finds so much in fashion to please them at "The Big Store." The metropolitan markets are searched for the cream of merchandise to suit every age. It is a feature of this store to carry a stock sufficiently large and varied to please the thousands who always make J. M. Bostwick & Sons their shopping center.

Printers Who THINK

FINE PRINTING at a reasonable price is not enough in 1933. Thinking was never a more important ingredient of printing than in this year when every dime must do the work of a dollar. Enough money is wasted every year in unplanned printing to keep many an anemic company out of the red if directed to planned printing. Fine printers? Ask any customer—and, if you must know, our prices are deflated! Smart typography, modern makeup, meticulous presswork, obliging workers. If you wish we can write your copy—vigorous copy, make your illustrations—graphic illustrations, and do the mailing—a complete direct-mail service—but whether the job is a book or a business card WE USE OUR HEADS.
